3 Questions

1. Have you ever worked and someone took all/some of your money?
2. Have you ever felt forced into doing something that made $ for someone else?
3. Has fear/confusion ever made you feel trapped in a lifestyle?

How Does this Happen?

- Recruitment Strategies & Risk Factors
- Ongoing Abuse/Coercion
- Returning to Abusive Environment

Recruitment (Labour)

Lisa

- Extreme poverty with no opportunity out
- Children
- Provided opportunity to work in Canada and pay for children's needs
- Paid fee to recruiter for the work

John

- Lived with family in poverty
- Little opportunity for education/training
- Very little work in country
- Told about someone, from own community, who has “made it in Canada”
- Given the opportunity to “make it” here too

Recruitment (Marriage)

Mary

- Live in war torn country
- 14 years old and oldest child
- Parents are offered money for her hand in marriage
- Promised their daughter can finish school in another country
- Money could be used to feed the family

Sarah

- 1st generation Canadian
- Was told at the age of 10 years she would be married to her cousin in country of origin
- Parents worried about “negative influences” in Canadian society
- Also wanted to expand family social connections

Toronto Star article, June 5th, 2015

Recruitment (Sex Trafficking)

Jenny

- In & out of care and group homes
- Substance abuse in family
- A lot of distrust in systems
- Introduced to a guy by a girl she knew from the group home
- Guy entices her to come to another province to meet with him and perhaps start a relationship

Annie

- Crown ward living in group home
- No family involvement & no real attachments to anyone
- Wants to be “part of a family”
- Introduced to a guy who pretends to be interested in her and convinces her to “try” prostitution for the weekend

Recruitment Strategies

- Poverty
- Lack of options for self
- Substance misuse
- Possibility of new life
- Need to escape abuse
- Use of someone from your own culture, community, background who is successful
- Sense of adventure

Coercion (Labour)

John

- Locked in basement
- Witnessed threats/violence to others
- Threatened to be killed and his body buried in the woods
- Isolated work environment

Lisa

- Threats of firing & deportation if non-compliant
- Work permit is for single employer so no chance to find another
- Constant monitoring of movements at work and home
- Strict house rules to follow

Coercion (Marriage)

Mary

- Husband extremely emotionally, physically and sexually abusive
- Moves her from family
- Isolates her
- Changes her name, birth year and province of her birth

Sarah

- Afraid she will be ostracized from family
- Afraid she will be abandoned by family
- Afraid she will bring shame and embarrassment to family

Coercion (Sex Trafficking)

Jenny

- Violence
- Threats
- Threats to family
- “Omnipotence” of the trafficker(s)
- Fear of police

Annie

- Violence/threats
- Belief this is her “family”
- Lack of trust/attachment to the system
- Fear of abandonment

Coercion

- Threats/violence to the individual or family
- Lack of understanding/knowledge of the law
- Lack of/precarious immigration status
- Lack of trust of authorities/systems
- Isolation/Loneliness
- The system not recognizing the factor
- Threats of deportation
- Economic intimidation
- Need to pay back debt

Exploitation (Labour)

John

- Worked 14 – 16 hour days
- No pay
- Had to pay trafficker back for airfare, shampoo etc

Lisa

- Worked long hours
- Although against contract told she had to repay airfare
- Paid additional money for transportation, for rent, for help to get OHIP, for work permit renewal

Exploitation (Marriage)

Mary

- Provided free labour for husband and his family
- “Sanctioned” sexual violence

Sarah

- Additional social and business/financial connections secured with her marriage

Exploitation (Sex Trafficking)

Annie and Jenny

- Pimps determined what acts they would perform to charge the highest amount of money
- Worked extremely long hours
- Received little to no money
- Fed infrequently

Exploitation

- Using them to make money
- Using them to take the risk of criminal charges
- Using them for free/cheap labour
- Using them for social status/connections

“Why do they go back?”

- Poverty, lack of options
- Little/no opportunity for education, training
- Fear of having to return/hopelessness for the future
- Lack of stability
- Isolation from family
- Lack of immigration options
- Additional stress due to criminal justice process

Ontario Strategy

Includes

- Support services
- Law enforcement
- Enhanced prosecution
- Education/training
- Housing – resources and regulatory changes

What Survivors Need

- Support
- Trustworthy people
- Safe place
- Stability
