

On May 10, 2023 allegations of the Member's professional misconduct were referred to the Discipline Committee for hearing, on a date yet to be fixed. Please see the Notice of Hearing below:

ONTARIO COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORKERS AND SOCIAL SERVICE WORKERS

IN THE MATTER OF Sections 26 and 28 of the Social Work and Social Service Work Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, Chapter 31;

AND IN THE MATTER OF a hearing directed to be held by the Discipline Committee of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers under the Social Work and Social Service Work Act, 1998;

AND IN THE MATTER OF allegations respecting the professional conduct of Sinisa Najcler, a Social Worker and former registrant with the said College;

NOTICE OF HEARING

TAKE NOTICE that a hearing will take place on a date to be fixed by the Registrar at the hour of 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon (or as soon after that time as a panel can be convened for the purpose of conducting the hearing) electronically, in writing or in person at the Board Room of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers, 250 Bloor Street East, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario before the Discipline Committee of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers (to be confirmed). The hearing will be held pursuant to the provisions of sections 26 and 28 of the Social Work and Social Service Work Act, 1998 (the "Act") and pursuant to the Regulations made thereunder, for the purpose of hearing and determining allegations of professional misconduct against you, Sinisa Najcler, which allegations were referred to the Discipline Committee pursuant to section 24(5)(a) of the Act.

AND TAKE NOTICE that you are alleged to be guilty of professional misconduct within the meaning of section 26(2) of the Act in that you are alleged to have engaged in conduct that contravenes the Act, Ontario Regulation 384/00 (the “Professional Misconduct Regulation”), Schedule “A” to By-law No. 66 of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers, being the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers Code of Ethics (the “Code of Ethics”), and Schedule “B” to By-law No. 66 of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers, being the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers Standards of Practice Handbook (the “Handbook”)¹.

I. The following are particulars of the said allegations:

1. At all times relevant to the allegations, you were a registered social worker with the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers (the “College”). At all relevant times, you provided social work services to clients through your private practice.
2. Between approximately June and November 2020, you provided social work services to C1. The services you provided to C1 included counselling services and/or psychotherapy.
3. You were aware from your sessions with C1 that she presented with issues of childhood abuse and neglect, anxiety, and negative core beliefs.
4. During your sessions with C1, you discussed yourself, your life, and/or your issues in a manner that you knew or ought reasonably to have known would not benefit C1, amounted to ineffective and/or improper counselling, and/or that violated professional boundaries, including by:
 - a. Discussing yourself and/or your own personal matters for a disproportionate amount of time;
 - b. Engaging in inappropriate and/or unnecessary self-disclosure, including but not limited to discussing the following:
 - i. Your marital circumstances;

¹ By-law 24, as amended by By-law Nos. 32 and 48 and revoked effective July 1, 2008 by By-law 66, continues to apply to conduct which occurred prior to July 1, 2008.

- ii. That you have a health condition;
 - iii. Your personal “triggers” and childhood experiences;
 - iv. Your personal and familial relationships;
 - v. Your vacations and leisure activities;
 - vi. Gifts that had been given to you by other clients;
 - vii. Sharing details about your children; and/or
 - c. Drinking alcohol during at least one therapy session.
- 5. By virtue of the conduct described in paragraph 4 above, you failed to appropriately focus on the issues for which C1 was seeking counselling.
- 6. During the period when C1 was your client, you engaged in inappropriate communication, violated professional boundaries and/or engaged in behaviour or remarks of a sexual nature towards C1 that were not of a clinical nature appropriate to the service provided. In particular, you:
 - a. Engaged in extensive text exchanges with C1 that were of a familiar and personal nature, both in between sessions and after the period during which she received social work services;
 - b. Made comments to C1 that were personal, flirtatious, and/or unprofessional, including but not limited to by:
 - i. Commenting on how she looked and dressed when attending sessions;
 - ii. Telling her she looked “really good today”, or words to that effect, on a day where she wore v-neck t-shirt that was uncharacteristically tight-fitting;
 - iii. Telling her she was a beautiful young woman;

- iv. Telling her you “would like to do something with her in the future”, or words to that effect;
 - c. Discussing the women you were romantically pursuing and giving accounts of “flirting with friends” and of women who were interested in you romantically; and/or
 - d. Telling C1 after her last session “I would give you a hug if I could”, or words to that effect.
- 7. In and around November or December 2020, you engaged in a text message exchange with C1 by which you engaged in inappropriate communication, violated professional boundaries and/or engaged in behaviour or remarks of a sexual nature towards C1 that were not of a clinical nature appropriate to the service provided, as follows:
 - a. You told C1 that you were “going to build an ab ladder to that I can maintain my six pack...boom!!! [emojis]”;
 - b. You described for C1 what an “ab ladder” is and told her, “It works so well that it gives you a six pack!”;
 - c. You responded to a comment by C1 about a woman by texting “No, it’s a friend but she can get handsy ...[emojis] ... haha”; and
 - d. You sent a photo of yourself with your shirt raised and your fly open, revealing your abdominal muscles and underwear, along with the caption, “Thanks ab ladder!”

II. It is alleged that by reason of engaging in some or all of the conduct outlined above, you are guilty of professional misconduct as set out in section 26(2)(a) and (c) of the Act:

- a. In that you violated Section 2.2 of the Professional Misconduct Regulation and
 - i. Principle I of the Handbook (commented on in Interpretations 1.5 and 1.6) by:

- A. failing to be aware of your values, attitudes and needs and how those impact on your professional relationship with clients;
- B. failing to distinguish your needs and interests from those of your clients to ensure that, within your professional relationship, clients' needs and interests remained paramount;

ii. Principle II of the Handbook (commented on in Interpretations 2.2, 2.2.1, 2.2.2, 2.2.3, and 2.2.8) by:

- A. failing to ensure clients and former clients are protected from the abuse of power, including sexual misconduct, during and after the provision of professional services and/or failing to establish and maintain clear and appropriate boundaries in a professional relationship;
- B. engaging in a professional relationship that constitutes a conflict of interest and/or a situation in which you ought reasonably to have known that the client or former client would be at risk; failing to evaluate professional relationships and other situations involving clients or former clients for potential conflicts of interest; failing to avoid conflicts of interest and/or dual relationship with clients or former clients that could impair your professional judgment or increase risk of exploitation or harm to clients or former clients;
- C. engaging in sexual relations with a client or former client through behaviour or remarks of a sexual nature other than behaviour or remarks of a clinical nature appropriate to the service provided, where these relations, combined with the professional relationship, would create a conflict of interest;
- D. using information obtained in the course of a professional relationship and/or your professional position of authority to coerce, improperly influence, harass, abuse, or exploit a client or former client;

- E. engaging in conduct that could reasonably be perceived as reflecting negatively on the profession of social work;

iii. Principle III of the Handbook (commented on in Interpretations 3.2, 3.7, and 3.8) by:

- A. failing to deliver client services in a reasonable manner;
- B. failing, in the context of a personal relationship with a client or former client, to assume full responsibility for demonstrating that the client or former client was not exploited, coerced or manipulated, intentionally or unintentionally;
- C. providing services in a manner that did not conform to College standards and/or providing a service that you knew or ought reasonably to know is not likely to benefit the client;

iv. Principle VIII of the Handbook (commented on in Interpretations 8.1, 8.2.3, 8.6, and 8.7) by:

- A. failing to be solely responsible for ensuring that sexual misconduct did not occur;
- B. engaging in behaviour or remarks of a sexual nature towards a client, other than behaviour or remarks of a clinical nature appropriate to the service provided;
- C. engaging in sexual relations, through behaviour or remarks of a sexual nature other than behaviour or remarks of a clinical nature appropriate to the service provided, with a client at the time of referral, assessment, counselling, psychotherapy, or other professional services;
- D. engaging in sexual relations, through behaviour or remarks of a sexual nature other than behaviour or remarks of a clinical nature appropriate to the service provided, with a client or former client to whom you provided psychotherapy and/or counselling;

- b. In that you violated Section 2.5 of the Professional Misconduct Regulation in that you abused a client physically, sexually, verbally, psychologically or emotionally, including by sexually abusing a client within the meaning of subsection 43(4)(c) of the Act;
- c. In that you violated Section 2.6 of the Professional Misconduct Regulation by using information obtained during a professional relationship with a client or using your professional position of authority to coerce, improperly influence, harass, or exploit a client; and/or
- d. In that you violated Section 2.36 of the Professional Misconduct Regulation by engaging in conduct or performing an act relevant to the practice of the profession that, having regard to all circumstances, would reasonably be regarded by members as disgraceful, dishonourable or unprofessional.

AND TAKE NOTICE that the Discipline Committee may make an order under Section 26(4), (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9) of the Act, or any of them, in respect of any or all of the above allegations.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that the parties (including the College and you) shall be given the opportunity to examine before the hearing any documents that will be given in evidence at the hearing.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that if the hearing is proposed to take place in writing, either of the parties (including the College and you) may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Statutory Powers Procedure Act, RSO 1990, c S.22 (the “SPPA”) and the Discipline Committee’s Rules of Procedure, seek to require that the hearing be held electronically or orally by satisfying the Discipline Committee that there is good reason for not holding a written hearing.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that if the hearing is proposed to take place electronically, either of the parties (including the College and you) may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the SPPA and the Discipline Committee’s Rules of Procedure, seek to require that the hearing be held orally by satisfying the Discipline Committee that holding an electronic hearing is likely to cause the party significant prejudice.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the said hearing, you are entitled to be present and to be represented by counsel.

IF YOU DO NOT ATTEND AT THE HEARING IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS NOTICE OF HEARING, THE DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE MAY PROCEED WITH THE HEARING, AND MAY DEAL WITH THE ABOVE ALLEGATIONS AGAINST YOU, IN YOUR ABSENCE AND WITHOUT ANY FURTHER NOTICE TO YOU.

Dated at Toronto, the 10th day of May, 2023.
